ENGLISH FOLK DANCE MUSIC AND SONG - A LIVING HERITAGE

Secretary's Chat

Once again it is time to say I hope you have all had a good summer, and certainly here in Hampshire the weather has been good. Almost too good for the gardens!

To those of you who went to Festivals I trust you all had a super, if exhausting, time, and are now ready to start a new season. However, wherever you went, and whatever you did, I hope you enjoyed it.

Harold and I had some lovely days at Stokes Bay, even met some "folkie" friends there. It was even warm enough to swim, and that was much enjoyed.

The Barn-B-Que went well, and a nice sum was raised for FASH's funds, to help keep up the programme that has always been provided here in South Hants.

Elsewhere I am sure there will be a list of events and you will see the programme is much the same as before. It is hoped you will support some, or all, of them. Nigel Close is doing another season of Barn Dances at Winchester Guildhall, and the M27 Megabops are going on. So give it all as much support as you can. PLEASE NOTE THE VENUE FOR ALL THE WORKSHOPS IS SOBERTON VILLAGE HALL AS USUAL, 10.30am to 3.30pm. JUST FOR GOOD MEASURE THE PLAYFORD DANCE AND THE TEA DANCE ARE THERE AS WELL. You will also note the New Year Dance with Paddy and Pendragon is at Victory Hall, Warsash in 1995. Long ago the New or Old Year Dances were held there, there is a bar, and it will be good to be back there.

Anyone wishing to go to the Isle of Wight in October (half-term in Hants) there are a few places still left, and I am sure Jeane Howard will welcome you. If you have never been, it is a super craft/folk holiday, for a very reasonable sum. It is self-catering, but as an old hand I can tell you there are lots of places to eat out, or on site, and you can go armed with some supplies. It is a full week in October, Saturday to Saturday, whereas at Easter it is five days. Get in touch for Jeane's address if you are interested.

I am sure there will be plenty of other folk activities going on elsewhere, not just in Hampshire, so look out for details, when you go to any event.

Yvonne

ALVERSTOKE MICHAELMAS FAYRE - BARN DANCE AND BARBEQUE

As a curtain raiser to Alverstoke Michaelmas Fayre there is to be a Barn Dance and Barbeque at the Broderick Hall, Clayhill Road, Alverstoke, Gosport, on 23rd September, 1994, 7pm to 11pm. Music by Turk Town Troopers, with Rob Haskell calling. Tickets and enquiries to Adrian Edgar, 'Quality Fayre', 49 Village Road, Alverstoke, Gosport. Tel: 0705-583504. Tickets £4.00 adults, and £2.50 children, for a good Barbeque meal. Please bring your own drinks.

The following day there will be a Michaelmas Fayre, 24th September, where various groups have their wares on offer, with stalls all thru' the village. The village is very ancient, and quaint, with narrow streets, and a delight to visit.

So I may say is the St. Mary's Church, whilst you are in the area.

EDITORIAL

This is always the most difficult issue to put together - it is still the height of the holiday season. However, once again we have managed, but, I think for the first time only, there are only six pages, plus, I hope, an Events leaflet. Plenty of dates to note in your diaries.

That was the easy bit to write, so now the 'little grey cells' require some sort of inspiration, which at the moment is sadly lacking.

From this, you will gather that we are sadly short of material to include in this issue - no articles or other type of contribution, and very little in the way of advertisements, revenue from which is really needed. We are also lacking detail of some of the folk events in the area.

Anyway, welcome back to Solent Waves again, and to a new season of Workshops and Events arranged by the newly named Folk Association of South Hants. Please support these events and above all, enjoy yourselves.
