FASH CHAT

Welcome to a new season of folk activities. I hope you have all enjoyed your summer, and any festivals that you attended.

Looking back, the end of season event at Soberton was very enjoyable, in spite of the Hall committee deciding to paint the foyer that afternoon! A completely new experience, dancing and eating a cream tea to the overpowering smell of paint.

Looking ahead, there is a whole new series of workshops lined up, and it is hoped you will be able to join FASH at some, or all of them. The first is in early October, Historical Dance, which has proved very popular in the past. It will make a great start to the season. I hope to see lots of you there.

It was extremely good news for Portsmouth to get the next Festival of the Sea in 2001. It will make a super event in and around Portsmouth at the end of August. The Great Event Co is also launching a community event at the Dockyard at Christmas, and for the Festival of the Sea, and they are asking for anyone interested to take part. There is a poster, and if the Editor has room perhaps he will be able to give more information elsewhere (your wish is my command, Editor). There is a telephone, fax and email address, not forgetting the www.

It is with some disappointment that FASH has heard of the demise of Phoenix Club. After the great celebration last autumn of the 21st year, I had hoped it was set to survive. They have sent FASH a generous cheque as a share of the money the Club had left. Whilst FASH is very grateful for the donation, and thanks Phoenix for thinking of us, we would much rather the Club had been able to survive.

And lastly, looking further ahead to November and the Playford Dance with David and Kathryn Wright, and believe me folks it will soon come round, I hope you are all going to get your costumes dusted off, and come to enjoy a grand evening. Put it in the diary now - 18th November 2000.
