FASH Chat – Folk Camps, Folk Tradition Holidays

Finding an affordable holiday where you can explore your love of folk tradition, music, singing and dancing which guarantees a friendly environment can be difficult, particularly if you are a younger person on a budget.

Folk Camps offers just such an experience through a variety of different 'camps' where the community enjoys great company, making music and dancing every evening in an unforgettable atmosphere. There are opportunities to play with experienced musicians, learn new dances and sing, and get to know like-minded people for whom the sharing environment of Folk Camps and the preservation of traditions are important and stimulating. People of all ages and standards are welcomed; we work and play together amidst an all-inclusive spirit.

"I love it and all the people, and all the music, dancing and singing"

For over 50 years Folk Camps has been giving people a holiday experience like no other. The families who have come camping for years feel a sense of family with a wider group and children have grown into adult friends with their Folk Camp pals, even if they only meet once a year; for others it is a true pilgrimage and their year wouldn't be the same without it.

"Folk camp is when I catch up with all the friends I've known for five years. We met when we were teenagers and it's a very special time."

The longevity of this unique holiday experience and the continuation of British folk traditions rely on our continued success into the next generation. To help drive this we have created a Bursary Scheme. We're offering the chance for people aged 18 to 29 to become a Folk Camps Ambassador and enjoy a week's holiday for £20, over £180 less than the full cost. As an Ambassador, we'll ask you to think of a way you could benefit a Folk Camps holiday. We may ask you to help run a workshop, call some dances or write a blog on your own Folk Camp experiences, so that we can spread the word. There are many informal opportunities during the week and plenty of Folk Camp old-hands to support any ideas you have!

"My first time at a Folk Camp, I thoroughly enjoyed my time, so much that I am staying another week! Hopefully we'll come back next year!"

If you're interested in having a great time and sharing your skills and love of folk traditions with us then please go to our website for more information and an application form. <http://www.folkcamps.co.uk/downloads/BursaryApplication2014.pdf>

If you do not qualify for the bursary scheme, but are interested in finding out more about Folk Camps, there is more information on our website <http://www.folkcamps.co.uk>. We also run self-cater weekend holidays as well as summer catered weeks.

We hope to welcome you to the Folk Camps holiday experience, to learn more about you and your love of our folk traditions and to give you a truly unique holiday.

"It is difficult to imagine there is a better way to spend a summer holiday"

We have been receiving frequent updates about the Purbeck Folk Festival. We have just heard that Nizlopi have been booked. Together with Turin Brakes, Idle Wild, Chris Wood and Lloyd Cole, they join many other artists for this festival at Langton Matravers over the weekend August 21st - 24th. Details at www.purbeckfolk.co.uk

If you are free during the weekend of 27th - 29th June, Forest Folk are holding their annual 'Song and Ale' event at the North Boarhunt Village Hall. Camping is available nearby if you want to avoid driving. See the advertisement on page 5 for contact details.

'SOLENT WAVES' is published monthly, except January and August, by the Folk Association of South Hants (FASH) and is printed by Sarsen Press, 22 Hyde Street, Winchester SO23 7DR, 01962 854281. Any views expressed are those of the contributor and not necessarily those of FASH, its officers, elected representatives or the Editor. Solent Waves cannot guarantee the accuracy of Diary or other entries, but we hope there are few errors. Diary entries (2 lines maximum) are free of charge but donations are never refused. Solent Waves can be sent by email in pdf format each month, just email the editor if you wish to be added to the mailing list.

Directory of Folk, Dance and Display Clubs

The lists of the various clubs can always be found on the internet at www.fash.org.uk - and are included in the printed version of Solent Waves every few months as space allows.
